

THE EVENING BULLETIN

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1886.

Sixty million pounds of bogus butter are palmed off on the unsuspecting people of this country annually.

CAPTAIN CHARLETON MORGAN, a brother of General John H. Morgan, has been appointed Storekeeper under Collector Robinson, of this district.

The statement is made that Ireland consumed over 84,000,000 gallons of liquor last year at a cost of $55,000,000. If this be true, her troubles should not be wondered at.

A CLERGYMAN of Dodge City, Kansas, says 100,000 cattle and 100 human beings perished during the blizzard within a radius of 100 miles of that city. This is a pretty "tough one," but we haven't any grounds to doubt its truth.

HEAVY and destructive floods are reported from various sections of the East. Our citizens know how to sympathize with the sufferers when they remember that just at this time two years ago we were experiencing the great flood of 1884.

THE revival which Sam. Jones and Sam. Small have brought about at Cincinnati by their five weeks' labor is certainly one of the most wonderful that has ever been witnessed in this country. It is just what that city has been badly in need of, though, for a long time, and it is to be earnestly desired that the glorious work will not end now, simply because the two evangelists have been called elsewhere.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer has discovered a very appropriate name for the editor of the Commercial-Gazette, and now alludes to Halstead as 'Rat Halstead.' 'Rat is a good illustration of Halstead's leading traits. He is continually "gnawing" at something or somebody, and trying to ruin and destroy—if not at the people of the South, then at some of the illustrious characters of the North, who may have seen fit not to grant his demands.

The Tobacco War Ended.

The particulars of the tobacco war, the circumstances attending its prosecution, and the efforts of the past week to effect a compromise, are familiar history, and it but remains to state that yesterday the hatchet was buried and the dove of peace rests with folded wings upon the transom adorning horse-shoe, or words to that effect. The tobacco men met yesterday, and Major Withers, who was seen late last night at the Emery, gave the result. The five warehousemen who have been holding off from the association return to their allegiance, while in return the buyers and brokers concede the points embraced in the resolution passed a few days ago at the Palace Hotel meeting. By this Henry Queen and Mr. Tabb are elected inspectors, while to Major Withers falls the position of Supervisor of Weights. The three equally divide profits and losses.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

If the members of the Legislature keep on as they have started out, their constituents will soon come to the conclusion that law-making is a farce, and a very expensive one to the State at that. What one Legislature does the next Legislature turns around and undoes. A few years ago a fish law was placed upon the statutes of the State and there were but few who thought it was otherwise than a good law. The present Legislature has abolished it after a flight of several days. The Geological Survey was established a few years ago. A bill to abolish it has passed one House and is now pending before the other. The same thing can be said as to the State Board of Equalization, and so the thing goes. This leads us to remark, if laws are to be put on the books by one Legislature simply to be abolished by the next, where is the good of going to the trouble and expense of passing them? It's a "luxury" which the people of the State can't afford to pay for just at this time.

Talmage on Marriage Advertisements.

In a recent sermon on the "Marriage Ring," Dr. Talmage says: "Avoid all proposed alliances through newspaper advertisements. Many women just for fun, have answered such advertisements, and have been led on from step to step to catastrophe most infinite. All men who write such advertisements are villains and lepers—all, without a single exception. All! All! Do you answer them just for fun? I will tell you a safer and healthier fun. Thrust your hand thro' the cage at the menagerie and stroke the back of a cobra from the East Indies. Put your head in the mouth of a Numidian lion to see if he will bite. Take a glassful of Paris green, mixed with some delightful henbane. These are safer and healthier fun than answering newspaper advertisements for a wife. The writers of marriage advertisements may be 'villains and lepers,' but the women who answer them are merely idiots. That's the sort of game the advertisers hunt for. And they get them."

RAILWAY READING.

Annual Meeting of the Queen & Crescent Stockholders.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 16.—The meeting of the Cincinnati, New Orleans & Texas Pacific Railway company (Queen & Crescent route) was held at the general office. Mr. E. V. Brookfield was called to the chair, and Mr. Harry H. Tatem was at the secretary's desk. As the annual report of the president and board of directors had already been submitted to the stockholders, the reading of same was dispensed with.

The following resolution was offered by Mr. Henry H. Mack, which was unanimously carried:

"Resolved, That the report of the president and board of directors for the year 1885, be accepted and filed, and that the president as in said report set forth, be, and the same are hereby approved and confirmed."

Mr. Edgar M. Johnson offered the following resolution:

"Resolved, That before determining what action shall be taken by the company in pursuance to the resolutions heretofore offered by E. W. Kittredge, Esq., relative to the surrender of the lease, a committee of three be appointed who, in connection with the president and board of directors, shall be, and hereby are, authorized to take such steps as they may deem best to procure modification of the present lease as suggested in the report of the president and board of directors this day presented; and that said committee shall procure, if possible, such legislation as may be necessary to authorize the company to consent to the modification of the terms of the existing lease." Carried.

The chair appointed the following members on the committee: Messrs. E. W. Kittredge, Richard Smith and George Hafer. The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That the thanks of the stockholders be and the same are hereby tendered to the president and board of directors for their able and efficient management of the property of the company during the past year."

The annual election of a board of directors then followed, and the following gentlemen were elected: Frank S. Bond, Cincinnati; Thomas T. Gaff, Cincinnati; W. A. Goodman, Cincinnati; Isaac P. Martin, New York; Alex. McDonald, Cincinnati; Otto Flock, New York; Charles Schiff, Cincinnati; Briggs Swift, Cincinnati, and Augustus Wesel, Cincinnati.

The board, which is the same as last year, met this afternoon, and re-elected Frank S. Bond president, Charles Schiff, vice president. Mr. Harry H. Tatem was re-elected secretary and treasurer.

The Harness Makers' Strike.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 16.—Graf, Morsbach & Co., Main street harness makers, brought fifteen harness makers from outside the city to their factory in an omnibus and hustled them up stairs to work. The strikers were surprised, but managed to gather a small force for verbal remonstrance and threats, but no blows were struck. Two special policemen are watching the strikers hanging about the place and a larger force will be on hand in the evening. Graf, Morsbach & Co. say there may be trouble ahead, but they will stand by their imported help.

Floods subsiding.

FORT DEPOSIT, Md., Feb. 16.—The ice continues to come down and is passing quietly out into the Chesapeake bay. The quantity is diminishing and the water is subsiding slowly.
